

ASSESSMENT # 6

Total Marks: 30

1. Multiple Choice Questions:

(5)

- i. Make-up is used to enhance the facial features, and to:
 - a. improve the skin condition
 - b. to remove spots and blemishes
 - c. to make us look attractive

- ii. Which of the following foundations give heavy coverage?
 - a. Cream foundation
 - b. Liquid foundation
 - c. Gel foundation

- iii. What is the matching colour foundation for olive skin?
 - a. dark beige or brown
 - b. bronze
 - c. light beige or ivory

- iv. While applying face powder, the strokes of the brush should be:
 - a. first upwards and then downwards
 - b. first outwards and then downward
 - c. outwards and upwards

- v. Mascara is applied from:
 - a. base to the tips
 - b. from tips to the base
 - c. in upward strokes only

- vi. Blushers are used to do which of the following:
 - a. add colour to the face
 - b. to hide problem areas
 - c. to add warmth to the face

- vii. Make - up application:
 - a. varies from the client to client
 - b. is always the same for each client
 - c. is little different for each client

ASSESSMENT # 6

Total Marks: 30

- viii. The skillful application of different cosmetic products can:
 - a. can create balance in the face
 - b. can improve the condition of the skin
 - c. can change the appearance altogether

- ix. Face powder is used to do which of the following?
 - a. reduce shine
 - b. to enhance shine
 - c. to add warmth

- x. Which type of face powder would you use for evening make-up?
 - a. matt
 - b. iridescent
 - c. glittery

2. Subjective Questions

(21)

All questions carry equal marks.

- i. List at least three contra-indications to make-up treatment.
- ii. While preparing your trolley for a make-up treatment, which equipment will you include?
- iii. Which foundation do you think is most suitable for dehydrated skin?
- iv. What are the contouring cosmetics? What are the following cosmetics used for?
 - Shader
 - Highlighter
 - Blusher
- v. A client comes to you for her make-up application. She has combination skin with sensitive areas. Which type of products would you use for her makeup treatment?
- vi. How would you apply mascara, in order to achieve thick coverage?
- vii. How important it is to know about the client's skin type before choosing the cosmetics for her?

3. Which type of facial problems can you disguise using foundation?

(4)