

Interior Design Decorating Principles

ASSESSMENT # 2

Total Marks: 30

Q.1 Short Questions:

(15)

- i. What is meant by the term 'human dimensions'? How important it is to consider 'human dimensions' when planning an interior scheme?
- ii. How can different contrasts be introduced into an interior design scheme? How important are contrasts in a design scheme?
- iii. 'Progression is taking an element and increasing or decreasing one or more of its qualities'. Explain this statement by providing at least two examples.
- iv. 'Too many disjointed elements can be disquieting to the mind's eye'. How can an interior designer avoid this in an interior design scheme?
- v. Why is it important to consider the purpose of an interior space when planning a design scheme?

Q.2. 'Circulation through a space is a crucial aspect of a design'. Discuss.

(7)

Q.3. At which stage of a design project should utilities like heating, lighting, plumbing, electricity supply etc. be considered?

(8)