

ASSESSMENT # 8

Total Marks: 30

Answer the following questions:

1. The key to successfully working with children with ADHD as a teacher or teaching assistant lies in taking a three-stage approach to the teaching process. Provide a brief description of each of these stages and explain its importance.
2. The most effective strategies for assisting pupils with ADHD are built around three primary components: Academic Instruction, Behavioural Interventions and Classroom Accommodations. Briefly explain what each of these terms refers to, in the context of education children with ADHD.