

1. Give short answers for the following questions: (15)
 - i. What are the main goals of facility security management?
 - ii. What are the security responsibilities of the facilities manager?
 - iii. When developing a security plan, the planning team must focus on four areas. Briefly explain each of these.

2. Communication with employees, security and facilities staff, and occupants and visitors is the most important action that can be taken.' Discuss why this is the case. (7)

3. Discuss the advantages and potential disadvantages of technology's influence on the way the modern organisation approaches security management. (8)