

ASSESSMENT # 12*Total Marks: 20*Q.1 Multiple Choice Questions:

(04)

- i. How many stages are there in a typical interior design project?
  - a) two
  - b) three
  - c) four

- ii. The second stage of an interior design project involves:
  - a) design proposals and seeking the client's agreement
  - b) gathering information
  - c) producing detailed drawings

- iii. Initial meetings with the client not only establish the brief, but also help the client to understand:
  - a) the elements of design
  - b) the whole process
  - c) the materials

- iv. At which stage of a project does survey take place?
  - a) stage one
  - b) stage two
  - c) stage three

Q.2 Short Questions:

(16)

- i. What is the importance of design analysis? How does it help in the design process?
- ii. What are the most important points to consider for the delivery of a successful presentation?
- iii. What is meant by 'specifications'?
- iv. Why is a procurement schedule prepared?